

press information

architecture / munich / personnel news / a career with ATP

Personnel News

Gregor Gutscher moves to ATP Munich

Gregor Gutscher, the former head of the competition team at KSP Jürgen Engel Architects in Frankfurt, became design chief of the Munich office of ATP Architects and Engineers on 1st March.

Foto: Alexander Beck, www.alexander-beck.de

Gregor Gutscher was born in 1970 in Frankfurt am Main and studied architecture at the Technical University of Darmstadt before gaining experience with a number of German architectural offices. Most recently he was head of the competition and acquisitions team at KSP Jürgen Engel (formerly KSP Engel und Zimmermann) in Frankfurt am Main.

Competition winning schemes (1st Prize) from his time at KSP include Forum Messe, Frankfurt, '99,
Neue Mainzer Strasse Tower, Frankfurt, '99-'00,
Southern Extension to Frankfurt Airport, Frankfurt, '01-'02, Execution Competition for the Palaisquartier, formerly frankfurthochvier, Frankfurt, 2002,
Astra Tower, Hamburg, '04,
KfW Senckenberganlage, Frankfurt, '06,
Überseeterrassen, Hamburg, '06,
S. Oliver Headquarters, Würzburg, '06,
Justice and Administrative Centre, Wiesbaden, '07
Neue Börse Frankfurt, Eschborn, '08,
WinX Tower, Frankfurt, '09 Technical City Hall Area, urban ideas competition: New Organisation of the Dom Römer Quarter, Frankfurt.

"At the heart of my work lies an interest in new solutions and a desire to find new ways of looking at old approaches", explained Gregor Gutscher. "Interdisciplinary cooperation – as practiced by ATP – is a basic condition for such new developments".